BLESSINGS FROM PRISON

November 2014: Vol. 32, No. 11

Dear Friends,

We get letters. We get poems. We get art work. That's because prisoners want to communicate. And when the new birth occurs, then their world lightens up, and the words pour out – questions, poetry, and thanksgiving. Even the art takes on color and joy. All coming from a new heart.

For this Thanksgiving Season we want to share some of that heart joy with you. The new Creation is a wonder to behold. May each one walk worthy.

Take a look at our numbers on the back page and rejoice with us at the expansion of work. Ask the Lord what you can do to take us out of the “red” by 12/31. Thank you for your prayers and support.

Rodger Turley, Director

“Praise the Lord!
Praise the Lord, O my soul!
While I live I will praise the Lord;
I will sing praises to my God
while I have my being.” Psalm 146:1,2

GETTING IT RIGHT

“Man, O' man! A good Christian friend of mine let me read the booklet, The Letter to the Romans, by William MacDonald. I'm so very impressed. So many free Bible studies for us prisoners GET IT WRONG. So many Christian TV and radio personalities GET IT WRONG. Seems to me from this booklet you fellows GOT IT RIGHT! Thank you Lord. Can I please be part of your New Testament Bible study? I sure would like to be. I look forward to it.”

PRAISES AND THANKS

"I thank God for your ministry. Some days it is a struggle that is unbearable. Reading these lessons has helped me to grow in God's Word and to mature in other areas of my life." Edward

"I got saved and turned my heart and soul over to Jesus on July 24, 2014. God is my Savior, my Lord, and my best friend. I never thought that being incarcerated I could find the eternal freedom of my spirit. My real jail was when I was out in the real world. I was a slave to drugs and alcohol and all types of sins. Now God has changed me and I'm a new person and I've never been this happy. Thank you, Jesus." Carlos

"May our Lord and Father bring love and grace upon you and your loved ones. I just wanted to say how thankful I am to our Lord for allowing time in your lives to bring the Word to us. Christ is a wonderful thing. Thank you for being the Lord's hands and reaching out to help us find our Father." Thomas

"My brothers and sisters: God bless you. I want you to know God loves you. I want you to know you are special in life. Thanks to our Lord Jesus Christ." Agustin

"Hello, and may you be walking with Jesus today. I am a devoted Christian and have been doing the Emmaus studies for quite some time. I love everything about the structure, presentation, and inspiration connected to these lessons. I thought I was well versed in the Word, but the insights I have gleaned from the fields of Emmaus have helped make the portion of my cup more abundant."
